—To Whom It May Concern—At the last meeting of the City Council an ordinance was passed prohibiting chickens running at large on the streets, or trespassing on the property of others. This ordinance is not being well observed. A yellow hen has intruded upon the property of the writer for several days, and unless taken off the streets, the ordinance will be enforced, and the fine of from $1 to $3 collected.

—Judyville, a suburb of Millersburg, has been in a somewhat disturbed condition for some time, which broke out a few days ago into real activity. On Thursday warrants were sworn out for Mrs. James Cameron and 15 year old son, Adrain, J. D. Bradley and wife, Mrs. Bradley. The four cases were brought before Squire Thompson, Saturday morning. Mrs. Cameron and son, Adrain, and Mrs. Anna Bradley plead guilty, and were each fined $2, with a reprimand should this outbreak occur again they would be fined $200 each and placed under a peace bond. Mr. Bradley was the only one that was tried and acquitted. The trouble was caused by a quarrel between the Bradley and Cameron boys, the parents being subsequently driven into it.

JIMMY VIOX INJURED.

Jimmy Viox, the former fast short stop of the Lexington team in the Blue Grass League, was badly injured in the game between Boston and Pittsburg, at Boston, Friday. Viox, who was playing second base for Pittsburg, sustained two broken ribs by colliding with Gilbert at second base in the third inning. He will be out of the game for two or three weeks.

KENTUCKY OFFICIALS

Enjoined From Enforcing Provisions of New Insurance Act.

The Green-Glenn Insurance Law, passed by the last Kentucky Legislature and signed by Governor McCreary, was Friday declared unconstitutional by Judge Robert L. Stout, who is presiding over the June term of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

B. Ryan, the insurance companies' attorneys, Clem Wheeler, Frank Drake and R. G. Gordon, came to Paris Friday morning from Frankfort and made application to Judge Stout for a restraining order. The Judge decided that the law was unconstitutional and made the injunction permanent.

The injunction is against Matt Clay, State Insurance Commissioner; James B. McCreary, Governor of Kentucky; Henry M. Bosworth, Auditor, and Ruby Laffoon, attorney for the Insurance Department, enjoining them from carrying into effect the provisions of the Glenn-Green Insurance Act, passed by the last Legislature.

This order was sought under an agreed case which was presented to Judge Stout by the attorneys for the plaintiffs. The defendants are represented by the Attorney General's office, but they were not present.

Judge Stout in granting the injunction asked for, held that the Glenn-Green bill was unconstitutional because of various requirements for the passage of bills by the Legislature basing his opinion upon a decision of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, written by Judge Carroll and rendered on May 28, 1914, in the case of the Board of Prison Commissioners vs. Spenser.

The asking for this injunction was one of the steps in the recent agreement effected at a conference at Louisville on June 10 between representatives of the insurance companies and the State officials, whereby it is expected to settle the insurance troubles and bring back to the State the companies which withdrew upon the passage of the Glenn-Green bill.

The case will be carried at once before the Court of Appeals and a decision will probably be rendered within a short time.

Local agents of the companies that withdrew from the State have been notified to resume writing insurance.

LONG LITIGATION LIKELY.

FRANKFORT, KY., June 15.—Prolonged litigation is the outlook for the suit attacking the Glenn-Green insurance law. Not only must final adjudication be had in the Franklin Circuit Court followed by appeal to the Court of Appeals, but a question involving the Federal constitution, uniformity of taxation raised in the suit, may carry it into the Federal courts. There is little likelihood of the end being reached before the commission finishes its work of investigating the situation and reports to the 1926 General Assembly.

JOHN GUND WINS

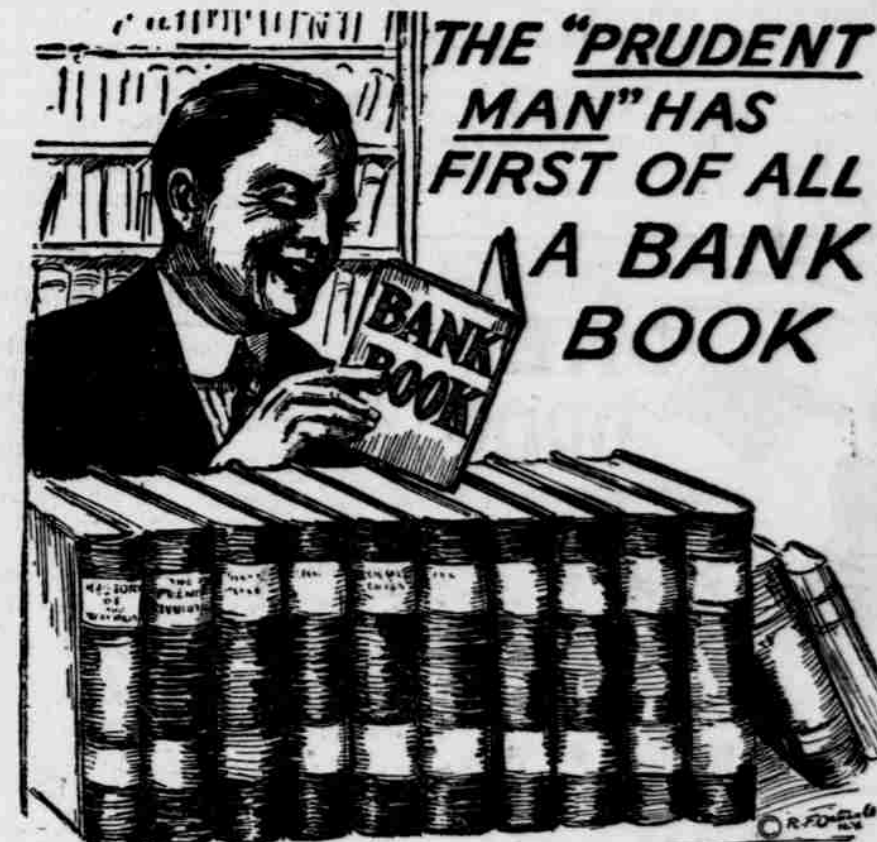

THE LATONIA DERBY.

A Baker & Co.'s John Gund accounted for the thirty-second running of the Latonia Derby, winning from his stable companion, Constant, with Dr. Samuel bringing up in third place. Bronzewing, the favorite, was fourth, and Casuarina, the early pacemaker, landed a beaten last.

The winner was handled by Neylon, who used superb judgement and sent his mount into the lead when Casuarina weakened, never relinquishing it. Gov. Gray's track record of 2:30 2-5 was equaled. The running of the race bore out the critic's contention that John Gund would win handily that afternoon because of his more superb form. Bronzewing, seemingly sore and stiff, came back to the scales practically broken down.

Waterbass, the property of Turney Bros., of Paris, was defeated for the $20,000 International Derby at Montreal, Saturday, by David Craig. Waterbass dashed to the front and set a dazzling pace. Luke McLuke finished with a rush and beat Waterbass out three parts of a length for third place.
